Volume 58, No. 10

Continuing the Conversation...

Hello friends,

I imagine a beautiful community created in the image of God as a divine community of trinity. The holy community that gives love ever, joyfully receives love, and gives again with all God's hearts! I imagine that in this way, the joy will expand ever in exponential ways. Yes, it is sure that we are created to be lovers. It means that we need a community to belong to love and to be loved.

In the church of God, this intimate space of sharing life and love is called small groups. It is like the life of the first Christians in Acts. They gathered and broke bread together. They confessed their sins, prayed together, and helped each other. The presence of the Holy Spirit was among them as the power of love. That's why Fifty-eight times in the New Testament uses the phrase "one another" -- love one another, care for one another, help one another, encourage one another, pray for one another, support one another, counsel one another.

We are never meant to go through life as a Lone Ranger. We are never meant to face my problems or my darkness by myself. In this space of love and respect, we don't need to look good since it is a place to share all our fears, faults, and desires. The space is surrounded by loving and respectful hearts that know the humble common fate of humanity. There will be relief and freedom in the power of the Holy Presence.

We need each other. We have a longing for belonging. We only grow in the community. It is like a tiny church inside of a church. There, we will get to see how Holy Spirit works through us and gently leads us to the place where we never imagined to be.

I desire to belong there as a member. How about you? Our church has good small groups that are healthy and solid. And now we need more. Could you please add your prayers so that the dream of God may come true?

Today I want to share something that I learned from the Institute of Congregational Development. It is about church culture, how our thoughts and hearts should be shaped as a healthy and beautiful church of God as a community. It is about attitudes that shape the whole energy of the church. The following was written by Pastor Jim Ozier.

Grace and Love,
Pastor Hae-Jeong

Beatitudes to Serve by and Strengthen Culture

Jim Ozier

BLESSED ARE YOU who possesses a positive attitude displayed at all times in the presence of members, visitors, and fellow workers, for even small seeds of negativism grow into large weeds.

BLESSED ARE YOU who see your assigned duties as a unique ministry in the Kingdom of God, for those who are dependable in learning and diligently applying their craft bring joy to the household of faith.

BLESSED ARE YOU who let the spirit of teamwork shine at all times, for its light illumines the dark corners of fatigue and discouragement that from time to time may creep in upon us all.

BLESSED ARE YOU who risks creatively changing things for the better, for initiative on behalf of the Lord is more to be desired than the wings of angels.

BLESSED ARE YOU who looks upon all persons with the eyes of Christ, for compassion and understanding are more esteemed than judgmentalism and self-righteousness.

BLESSED ARE YOU who ask, “What can I do to help?” with as much concern as “whose task is it?” for future is found in the team that works together for the glory of God.

BLESSED ARE YOU who speaks of no problem without offering a solution, for the tongue of the complainer is not as worthy as the lips of a problem solver.

BLESSED ARE YOU who dwell in the abode of humble service with your brothers and sisters rather than wait alone outside the gates of haughty superiority, for there the heart of the servant is found.

BLESSED ARE YOU who find no fault in they brother or sister that you are unwilling to discuss with them in Christian love, for “talking to” is far mightier than “talking about.”

BLESSED ARE YOU whose smile and pleasant disposition are known throughout the church, for a “no” spoken in courtesy is better than a “yes” spoken in contempt.

God's Abundance...

Parker Palmer, a Quaker theologian, once told a story about abundance. Palmer was a passenger on a plane that pulled away from the gate, taxied to a remote corner of the field and stopped. You know the feeling: the plane stops and you look out the window and see that you're not on the runway, the engines wind down and your heart sinks. The pilot came on the intercom and said, "I have some bad news and some really bad news. The bad news is there's a storm front in the West, Denver is socked in and shut down. We've looked at the alternatives and there are none. So we'll be staying here for a few hours. That's the bad news. The really bad news is that we have no food and it's lunch time." Everybody groaned. Some passengers started to complain, some became angry. But then, Palmer said, one of the flight attendants did something amazing. She stood up and took the intercom mike and said, "We're sorry, folks. We didn't plan it this way and we really can't do much about it. And I know for some of you this is a big deal. Some of you are hungry and were looking forward to a nice lunch. Some of you may have a medical condition and really need lunch. Some of you may not care one way or the other and some of you need to skip lunch. So, I'll tell you what we're going to do. I have a couple of bread baskets up here and we're going to pass them around and I'm asking everybody to put something in the basket. Some of you brought a little snack along – something to tide you over – just in case something like this happened, some peanut butter crackers, candy bars. And some of you have a few LifeSavers or chewing gum or Roloids. And if you don't have anything edible, you have a picture of your children or spouse or girlfriend/boyfriend or a bookmark or a business card. Everybody put something in and then we'll reverse the process. We'll pass the baskets around again and everybody can take out what he/she needs. "Well," Palmer said, "what happened next was amazing. The griping stopped. People started to root around in pockets and handbags, some got up and opened their suitcases stored in the overhead luggage racks and got out boxes of candy, salami, a bottle of wine. People were laughing and talking. She had transformed a group of people who were focused on need and deprivation into a community of sharing and celebration. She had transformed scarcity into a kind of abundance." After the flight, which eventually did proceed, Parker Palmer stopped on his way off the plane – (deplaning), and said to her, "Do you know there's a story in the Bible about what you did back there? It's about Jesus feeding a lot of people with very little food." "Yes," she said. "I know that story. That's why I did what I did." Even amid what we think is scarcity, many times God has already given us what we need.

October's movie is

"The Simple Life of Noah Dearborn"

The Simple Life of Noah Dearborn, is a 1999 American television film aired on 9 May 1999 on CBS. It stars Sidney Poitier as the eponymous rural Georgia skilled carpenter, who lives alone without electricity and seems frozen in time. George Newbern played a developer trying to force Dearborn off his land. He tries to enlist the help of his psychologist girlfriend, a move which backfires badly. The developer tries to have Dearborn declared mentally incompetent; the effort fails, mostly because of the efforts of the woman, who realizes why Dearborn is held in esteem by his neighbors. For her performance, Dianne Wiest was nominated for a Primetime Emmy Award for Outstanding Supporting Actress - Miniseries or a Movie. Poitier retired from acting and died in 2022. Rated PG

Family Fun Nights

Connections Ministry

A new Ministry is forming to connect people and ministries. We can call it tentatively Connections Ministry. It is to love and care for our church families and friends with the love of Christ. It is by connecting the gift and willingness of support, and the needs of the congregation. Connections Ministry strives to connect people in need with individuals of Sparta UMC, ministry teams, or community organizations that provide compassionate care. If you would like to join this ministry, please let the pastor know. It will alleviate suffering of our church family and provide discipleship opportunities.

We have had 4 Family Fun Nights, August 23 & 30 and September 13 & 27 from 4:30 to 6:45 with a meal at 5:30. After the meal we have music & dancing followed by a Bible story and craft.

On the 23rd we had inside activities because of the HOT weather. We had playdough, coloring, and a craft in a theme of Summer Camp.

On the 30th, we had two Bounce Houses, one from Sparta Hardware and another from Donna Burnham Larry Humphrey, Megan Humphrey & Addy Alvarado, Kevin & Margie Lakowske, Donna Burnham were great help getting things set up and watching the kids enjoy the bounce house, play corn hole, and just enjoy the cooler day.

On September 13th, Donna Burnham engaged the kids in a kick ball game and even Pastor Hae-Jeong joined in the fun.

Thank you to Cyndi Wise, Amy Kiefer, Margie Lakowske & Eileen Gajewsky for furnishing the meal. I would also like to thank everyone who helped with the setup, clean up, & serving of the meal, we could not have done it without you.
